

I am very concerned that state banks (IN) are introducing a petition (02-278) that will take the teeth out of Indiana's no call list; it has been a blessing to get home from work & not have to answer phone calls from telemarketers, who apparently believe it is their sovereign right to invade my privacy via the phone system